Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On September 21, 2020, Agile Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) hosted an analyst day presentation (“Analyst Day”). Members of the Company’s executive team discussed launch and commercialization plans for Twirla®, the Company’s once weekly low-dose prescription contraceptive patch. Management was joined by a leading external expert who provided clinical perspectives on Twirla, as well as insights into today’s contraceptive marketplace.

During the presentation, the Company reaffirmed its previously announced operating expense guidance for the full year 2020 to be in the range of $52 million to $56 million and its previously announced net revenue guidance for the fourth quarter of 2020 to be in the range of $1 million to $2 million. The Company also reaffirmed its belief that, based on the Company’s current business plan and ability to launch Twirla, its cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities as of June 30, 2020 will be sufficient to meet its projected operating requirements through the end of 2021. If the COVID-19 pandemic or other factors impact the Company’s current business plans or its ability to generate revenue from the launch of Twirla, the Company believes it has the ability to revise its commercial plans, including curtailing sales and marketing spending, to allow it to continue to fund its operations.

A live webcast of the Analyst Day as well as the presentation materials for the event were simultaneously made accessible through the Investor Relations section of the Company’s website. A replay of the webcast and the presentation materials are available at <https://ir.agiletherapeutics.com/>. The replay will be accessible for the next 30 days.
